“ To the family:

I would like to extend my deepest sympathy to your family during this painful time. I wanted to share some comforting truths with you during this difficult time. Yes it's very painful when we lose a loved one to death so wouldn't it be great to see, talk, touch, hug, smile and cry together again. Well, life which is a gift from God did not purpose for our lives to be cut short for any reason no matter how young or old that is why he made a provision by means of his son Jesus that we may have life again. (John 5:28-29). so we should read the Bible because it tells us what happens to us when we die. That is truly a gift from God and one day in our life time the righteous will possess the earth and reside upon it forever (Ps 37:29) in an abundance of peace. (Ps 37:11) Yes it is extremely encouraging to know that in due time Jehovah God has promised by means of his son, Jesus Christ that the dead will awaken (Dan 12:2)and death will be no more, no more suffering and pain according to Revelation 21:4, not to mention no one ever having to say they are sick.(Is 33:24). May Jehovah God embrace you all in His love
