

Wilson O. Latney

January 19, 1946 - February 6, 2019

Wilson Odell Latney was born on January 19, 1946. He was the eldest child of the Walter and Catherine Latney. Odell, as he was lovingly called, grew up in Fairmont Heights, Maryland and graduated from Fairmont Heights High School. He began his professional career as a postman for the United States Postal Service. Quite the entrepreneur, Odell also prepared taxes, made CDs, delivered cakes and was an absolute computer wizard.

Spending time with his family and playing with his grandchildren were the highlights of Odell's days. He was the official family "chauffeur" and loved every bit of that role. Odell enjoyed lending a helping hand to people, in general, and assisted seniors with their legal affairs. His hobbies included karate, deejaying, motorcycles, and watching Star Trek movies.

Proceeding Odell in eternity are his parents, Walter and Catherine Latney and sister, Brenda Samiyya Lateef-Bland. He leaves to cherish his memory, his beloved wife, Mary; a devoted son, Christian; two adorable grandchildren Journee and Jaden; one endearing adopted grandchild, Brylee; two sisters, Catherine Alston and Rochelle Nichols; four brothers-in-law, Lomax White (Mattie), Percil Branham (Ann), William Branham, Jr. (Dornita), and Mitchell White; two sisters-in-law, Lillian Branham and Evangelist Helen Poole (Galen); three aunts, Constance Jennings, Carrie Morris, and Lucille Briscoe; two special friends, Ernest Harris and Vernon Colbert; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends
