“ Dear Brother Dowtin and Family,

May you find comfort in knowing what a very special person Deaconess Dowtin was.

She always went the extra mile to make people feel comfortable.

She was very loving and kind.

She welcomed my husband and I to Generation 1 when we relocated to Montgomery County about 15 years ago.

She was the Leader of Generation 1, a senior ministry at People's Baptist Church. We will always remember the warmth that she had for everyone.

May you find comfort in hearing about the very kind and gifted person she was.

God's special blessings to each one of you at this very difficult time.

Love and blessings,

Evangelist Connie and Elder Elroy Blake.

“ I moved to Washington, DC from East Lansing, Michigan in 1987 to work for the US Office of Personnel Management and to continue my education at the University of the District of Columbia. I knew only one person in Washington at the time. When I moved there, he went to Idaho for a project management gig. I was alone. But not really. Yvonne befriended me and soon after her work friends (Agnes, Linwood and Ben). I went to lunch with them daily. I was in great company - I was with my mentors. I was going to study medical technology. After a short while, I changed my major to Information Technology and became programmer like my peers. Meeting Yvonne changed my life. Soon after she invited to her church in Georgetown for friends and family day. That is when I met the family. Soon after that, I was invited to holiday dinners and felt like a member of the family. She and Mr. Downtin were like my aunt and uncle. They watched over me. I was 24 at the time. I didn't think I needed that, but God did and he sent that angel to keep me while I was in the strange city. It was God again who brought us to the same church some years later -- the People's Community Baptist Church - where we were in the same family again -- the Gad Family. God orders our steps even when we can't see our footprints anymore. Rest in peace auntie. Family please take care - she is still watching over you too.
