“ To my lovely daughter. I will miss your beautiful voice and the way you said DADDY when we spoke. The memories of our days living in Japan and England. The sweet British accent you developed as a child and how fast it reverted back to Americanism upon our return to the USA. You were always full of happiness. I was there from the beginning and to hear your last three words "Daddy, daddy, daddy". Your final smile as you looked at me and went to be with the Lord. I love you my daughter and until we meet again the biggest hug ever.

Your loving father,
Tommy Stovall

My sincerest condolences go out to Ms. Ford and Dominique. She's with God 🙏 now, no more pain. We talked about getting together but didn't get the chance. Till we meet again.....love Eleanor.
